

This is the best law to come through in a long time. The last 2 years have been very peaceful. If any company calls me unsolicited I can guarantee I won't do business with them. I have switched banks and several credit cards because they called to offer me additional services and I told them to not call me again and they did. Please do not let this law go away.